CUSTOM MARKERS AND MONUMENTS ANNOUNCES CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP OF ME PET MONUMENTS ASHTABULA COUNTY ANIMAL PROTECTIVE LEAGUE 'BOO WOW WALK'

AUSTINBURG, OH - (October 6, 2010) - Custom Markers and Monuments, manufacturers of the popular line of Remember Me Personalized Pet Monuments, has announced its $500 Great Dane sponsorship of the 2010 Ashtabula County Animal Protective League 'Boo Wow Walk'. As a corporate sponsor, Custom Monuments has joined a growing list of Ashtabula County companies that have pledged support for this important event.

The annual Boo Wow Walk, held Saturday, October 16, at the beautiful Maple Ridge Golf Course in Austinburg, is one of the signature activities of the Ashtabula APL. This Halloween-themed, fall event raises thousands of dollars each year for animal care at the no-kill shelter. About 600 walkers and their costumed dogs are expected to participate in this year's event.

Custom Markers will have a booth showcasing their line of 'Remember Me Personalized Pet Monuments' and company representatives will meet and greet walkers and their pets. Boo Wow participants will also be able to enter a drawing to win a free Memory Monument, with an engraved plaque.

Byron Dutton, president and CEO of Custom Markers and Monuments, will talk about his company's line of Pet Monuments and their participation in the Boo Wow Walk, during an interview on WKKY-Radio – one the event's primary sponsors. Supporting television and radio ads promoting Remember Me Pet Monuments will be broadcast on WKKY radio and Time Warner Cable TV, during the next two weeks.
